Update from Kenny in USA

Currently in Evansville Indiana, Sunday night. Going to look and pay for a second machine tomorrow a big numeric computer controlled router.

Signed off on a bigger plastic moulding machine last Friday. I am staggered just how big the equipment is but I probably should have been a meter or so larger. If this goes well I will recommend one.

I was in Chicago last week when the snow dump started. Surprising just how much chaos that caused, the city and O'Hare were almost shut down.

Prior to that I was in Las Vegas, drove out through Nevada desert to Mesquite to see a plastic sheet manufacturer.

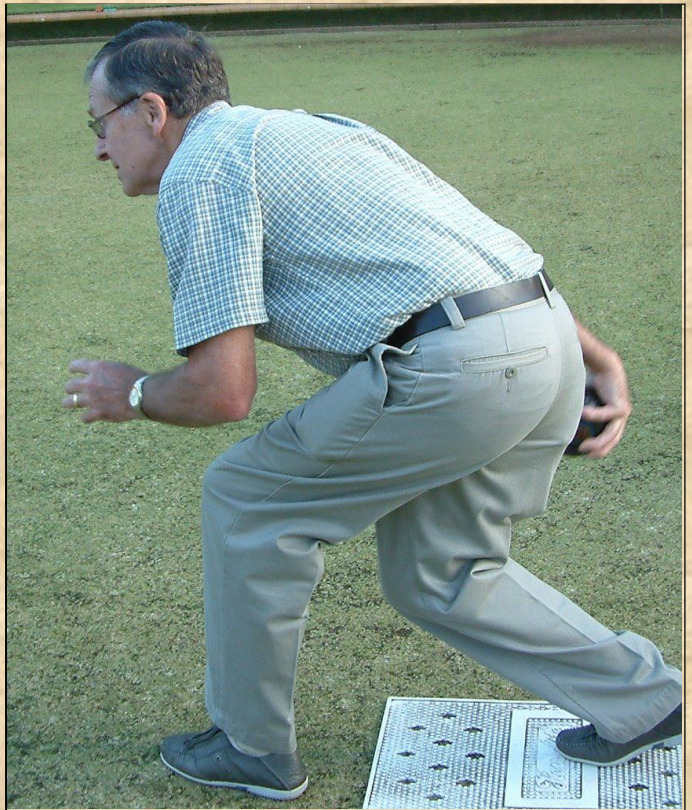

Interesting trip.
See you In a week.
