Christmas Party

Our Christmas Party was held at Roger's home which was an excellent venue for the function.

Approximately 40 attended for delicious food organised by Judy Houghton.

Everyone enjoyed the evening in very good weather.

Yes—he was awake!

Judy Houghton

After organising the food for the Christmas party and delivering her contribution Judy had to go home sick! Thank you Judy, you do an outstanding job of catering.

Xmas wishes from Rasma

Merry Christmas and happy new year! I lost my brain during exams so sincere apologies for ignoring RI before Christmas - miss you guys. Passed exams and now so brain dead have no idea what to do with myself during the break with no study to do - very weird. I am well, bones still mending, but feeling much better. Have made contact with a couple of RI local clubs, but yet to decide where I will go to play. Adelaide is an amazing place for volunteer work, so much to do and be involved in. Hopefully, 2013 will now be more organised - still crazy, but will be able to contribute more to my community. I hope the cycle classic prep is in full swing and will be bigger than last year! I hope everyone is healthy and happy. I will drop in for a meeting hopefully sometime if I get to Sydney later in the year. Just been asked to be a groomsman!, yes in the grooms party for a really great friend of mine. So very excited! Not sure if I'm Arthur or Martha at the moment. big hugs to everyone keep smiling
Rasma
xoxo
