This week: Marion Bennett: Homelessness on our doorstep

Marion Bennett is a policy professional, with a long career in central and line agencies of the New South Wales Government. As Executive Director of Housing Policy and Homelessness in the Department of Family and Community Services, she led negotiations of National Partnership Agreements on Homelessness, inter-jurisdictional housing policy and research advice to the Ministerial Council, and the Going Home Staying Home reforms of the homelessness system in NSW. Marion is now Head of Policy & Advocacy at Mission Australia, which works to reduce homelessness and strengthen communities across the country.

Marion will speak about the challenge of homelessness and Mission Australia's work in combating it. Every night more than 100,000 people in Australia are homeless. Homelessness can affect men, women and children from a wide range of backgrounds living in our cities, suburbs and country towns. The extent of the problem is hidden by the fact that most homeless people don't sleep rough on the streets. They stay with relatives and friends until they wear out their welcome, and sleep in hotels, short-term and crisis accommodation, caravan parks and even cars.

Last week's guests & notices

President Graham:

- Welcomed Anil and Neelam Fulwaria;

Rotary monthly theme: Vocational service

- Alerted members to a 10 day Vietnam tour on 10-19 May for $2,988 per person, profits from which will aid the Rotary Club of Turramurra's Wheelchairs for Kids in Bangladesh project (see advertisement later in this edition);
- Encouraged golfing members to participate in Australian Rotary Health's charity golf day at Riverside Oaks on Wednesday, 24 February (see advertisement later in this edition);
- Reported receipt of a booking form for Shen Yun Chinese music and dance performances in Sydney on 8-13 March (tickets available from $89-159 per person);
- Announced that members should book for themselves and their guests as usual on the club's website for the combined meeting with the Rotary Club of St Ives on Wednesday, 10 February (in lieu of our meeting on Monday, 8 February) to hear Australian Human Rights Commissioner Tim Wilson talk on the subject of advancing human rights in Australia;
- Invited members and their spouses/partners to join President Graham and Judy and President Elect Michael and Kerry at the District Conference in Canberra on 11-12 March;
- Reported that 580 riders have registered for the Bobbin Head Cycle Classic - 20% more than at the same time last year.

Michael Midlam presented Chris Lewis with the (suitably modified) trophy for the previous week's putting competition, won by Lindsay Forrest and Chris.

Youth Service Committee report

Linda Lam-Rohlf presented a report on two recent youth projects, as follows:

NATIONAL
FORUM

- Emily Cheung, our nominee to the 2 week National Youth Science Forum in Canberra, was very excited by what she experienced and will tell us about it at our meeting on 25 January.

- Leah Mangion, our nominee to the 1 week Rotary Youth Leadership Award course in Elanora Heights, was amazed at what she learned and the friendships she built with other attendees. She will give a short presentation at our meeting on 1 February.

- Linda thanked the following for their contributions to the success of the two programs:

- Joy Newling – who searched everywhere for suitable candidates;
 - Greg Newling – who conducted an interview with Leah;
 - Gary Keating – who took Emily and her mother to Penrith for the program orientation;
 - Graham Timms & Lindsay Forrest – who drove Leah to and from the venue;
 - Chris Lewis – who joined Linda for the RYLA dinner at Pittwater RSL Club; and
 - Graham Maslen – who arranged required payments with Rotary International.
- Linda is looking forward to developing new youth projects with Matt Mahjoub when he becomes a member.

Lao water supply project update

Greg Newling gave this report on the latest developments on the Lao water supply project:

A couple of years ago we contributed to a project in Lao to supply water to several villages.

An exciting aspect of this project is that we joined with four other clubs in our district, six in Western Australia, and two in Lao and Cambodia, as well as The Rotary Foundation.

Our $3,000 thus became part of a $90,000 project which is bringing great benefit to villages in Lao.

The project is nearing completion, with work starting on the last village.

Because the communist government in Lao changed the approval at the last minute, the project has had to accommodate an extra village. Our club's board has approved a further contribution of $1,000 to help with this requirement.

When Charlie Barnett (Rotary Club of Mosman) and Hugh Hamlyn-Harris (Rotary Club of Lindfield) visited the project, they also visited the Australian Embassy. As a direct result of that visit, the embassy funded a new dormitory for the children who stayed in one of the villages on a weekly basis, so that they could attend school.

Our club should be proud to be part of this successful project.

District 9685 Conference

Quality speakers and outstanding stories of service and achievement will be the highlight of the Rotary District 9685 Annual Conference planned for Canberra on March 11 and 12.

Rotary District 9685 stretches from the Blue Mountains to Gosford and back to the north western districts of Sydney. It is one of the largest and most successful Rotary Districts in Australia.

District Governor Gina Growden chose the Canberra Convention Centre as the venue for her major event of the year because of the quality and pricing of the facility and nearby accommodation – compared to other major venues around NSW.

Always the innovator, Governor Gina has created a unique opportunity for Conference patrons in that weekend sessions will be confined to Friday evening; and Saturday – with a free day to explore and shop in Canberra on Sunday!

Saturday evening will be a fun night at the Australian Institute of Sport in Canberra with Rotarians and partners dressing in special sporting theme costumes.

Another innovative feature of Governor Gina's planning is her invitation to the general public to attend the Conference to be informed, enlightened and entertained!

Interested members should go to the District Conference website –

<http://conference.rotarydistrict9685.org.au> – for registration details and additional information. To go direct to the online registration site, click here.

The list of outstanding speakers includes –

- Dr Tim Sharp – one of Australia's outstanding academics. Tim has completed a B.Sc (Hons), a Masters degree in Clinical Psychology and a Ph.D., before working for many years as a clinical and academic psychologist. He has Sydney's largest clinical psychology practice, is an accomplished author and has featured in the prestigious Telstra Business Awards.

- Dr Sam Prince – a 27 year old entrepreneur, medical doctor and philanthropist. Sam established a fresh Mex Grill franchise whilst studying medicine at the age of 21. He grew Zambrello to over 15 stores and counting – 170 staff and over $10 million in revenue. Sam has set his will towards democratising healthcare and education for young people across Australia and the globe.

- Rob Pennicott – proprietor of Bruny Island Cruises, Rob started his business career as a fisherman in the pristine waters of southern Tasmania. His business has expanded into a world class ecotourism experience which has won numerous state and national tourism and business awards. Rob has a passion for Rotary and the Polio eradication campaign and in 2011 he led a special expedition to drive two yellow dinghies around Australia and raise $259,000 for Polio Plus!

- Professor Greg Nelson – private Consultant Cardiologist, North Shore Cardiac Centre. Greg has been in Cardiology practice since 1984 and has been involved in development of the process of field triage for primary angioplasty in acute myocardial infarction. He helped establish the concept of the Regional Heart Attack Centre at Royal North Shore Hospital and has a strong interest in clinical research as the author of over 70 papers in peer reviewed journals.

- Gemma Sissia – living proof that, with a passion to achieve and the support of Rotary – anything is possible in this world. Only daughter of a sheep farming Rotary family from Guyra, Gemma was educated as a teacher with copious first class and honours degrees, before she went off to follow her dream of working with poor children in East Africa. She met and married a young Tanzanian man and with a gift of land from her father in law – and ongoing support from Rotary clubs and volunteers in Australia - has built one of the most successful private schools in rural Africa – the School of St Jude. The school opened in 2002 with a handful of students to a stage where there is now 1,900 students across three campuses from primary through to full secondary classes. In 2012, Gemma was named one of The Australian Financial Review and Westpac's 100 Women of Influence in the Global category!

Rotary Theme 2016-17

Rotary Serving Humanity is the theme for the 2016-17 Rotary year. This was announced to the incoming District Governors for 2016-17 at the Rotary International Assembly in San Diego.

The statement on the Rotary.org website says: RI President-elect John F. Germ chose Rotary Serving Humanity as his theme for 2016-17. Noting Rotary's unique ability to bring together committed professionals to achieve remarkable goals, Germ believes that "now is the time to capitalize on our success: as we complete the eradication of polio, and catapult Rotary forward to be an even greater force for good in the world."

District Governor 2018-19

Napoleon Bonaparte declared to his troops that a field marshal's baton is tucked into every soldier's knapsack. Rotary is no different: every Rotarian has the potential to become a District Governor or a more senior officer of Rotary International.

If you have filled most of the positions in the club, including President, and if you have served on various District committees, now's the time to nominate to become the District Governor for 2018-19. And if you haven't yet acquired the necessary range of experience, it's another reason to start doing so.

Ivan Skellet of our club was Governor of District 9680 in 1994-95. It's high time we produced another candidate.

Last week: Georgina Manning: The Manning Foundation

Georgina talked first about the Manning Foundation and then about herself and her family.

The Manning Foundation

In 1986 Peter Ross, who worked in the markets, wanted to do something for the community. He asked his friend Stephen Manning (Georgina's late husband) who ran the 'Family Inn' at Ermington for help. So began a series of Christmas lunches disadvantaged people in the area. Originally catering for 40, they are now for as many as 250. Peter supplied the vegetables.

Following Stephen's death, the Manning Foundation was established in 2004 to raise funds (through 2 appeals per year) to support the Christmas lunches and the distribution of food hampers. Last year it provided 160 hampers and gave new toys to 181 children.

The Foundation now runs two 'op' shops to raise money. With the profits and with donated goods, it supplies food, clothing, furniture and medicines. It also funds TAFE fees and funerals. The op shops serve an extra function as a place for lonely people to come in and talk.

All the staff of the Foundation are volunteers. Its clients include people referred by local councils and Centrelink, refugees, ex-prisoners and others.

The Foundation welcomes donations of clothing and all types of household goods - from furniture to sheets, kitchen equipment, crockery and cutlery.

Georgina and her family

Georgina's father manufactured leather goods (handbags and travel goods). Her mother was a Tivoli dancer.

When imported travel goods began to dominate the market, the family started Kay's Bag Stores, eventually selling its 5 branches to Strandbags.

Georgina trained and worked as a legal secretary, but then became involved in the family business. She started and ran 'Georgie's Shoes' and enjoyed the experience of overseas trips buying stock.

At 23 Georgina married Stephen, an accountant and senior investigator at the Australian Tax Office. Later they bought and ran the Family Inn and then another hotel in Leichhardt. The hotel business was a tough one to be in, with many robberies and on one occasion the murder of a manager to contend with.

Later Steve established O Media, which became the largest outdoor media company. Now Georgina owns The Barn Office Furniture in Granville and invests in and develops commercial property.

Georgina enjoys unusual travel - swimming with manta rays, trekking the Inca Trail, cycling in Vietnam and visiting the Amazon jungle. She reads historical novels and attends writers festivals. She has enjoyed the challenge of Rotary and gets a lot out of it and has appreciated the welcome she received.

Georgina loves cars and drives fast. Steve raced cars and their son James does so. Geogina also has a daughter, Kat.

Next week: Dominic Lo: Pahlavani: Persian yoga

Strong, invigorating, and challenging, Persian yoga is the physical conditioning art of ancient Persian warrior nobility and modern day Olympic wrestlers, lifters and martial artists. Persian yoga (Pahlavani) combines traditional, time tested and battlefield proven methods to forge powerful warriors. It is equally suitable, and adaptable, for beginners, avid physical culturists and aging athletes alike. It is simple but not easy!

Instructor Dominic Lo will provide an introduction to this little known practice. Not only will you discover how to swing mace clubs, handle shields, do push-ups and calisthenics like never before, but also simultaneously develop multiple fitness components, and most importantly have fun while learning new skills and honing existing ones.

Persian Yoga is a powerful, dynamic and exciting practice that will unleash the warrior within.

Persian Yoga is a powerful, dynamic and exciting practice that will unleash the warrior within.
